A REGULATION relating to homeopathic medicine; revising the interpretation of certain terms by the Board of Homeopathic Medical Examiners; revising provisions governing nutritional evaluations of patients; revising provisions governing the examination of an applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine or a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy; revising the requirements for continuing education for a homeopathic physician, advanced practitioner of homeopathy or homeopathic assistant; increasing certain fees charged and collected by the Board; revising the qualifications for a certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant or an advanced practitioner of homeopathy; revising provisions governing a written protocol for an advanced practitioner of homeopathy; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. Chapter 630A of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

“Applied kinesiology” means a method for identifying nutritional, energetic or other factors that may affect the functions of the body of a person by measuring muscle strength and endurance.

Sec. 2. NAC 630A.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.010 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NAC 630A.0105 to 630A.0133, inclusive, and section 1 of this regulation have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 3. NAC 630A.014 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.014 1. As used in NRS 630A.040, unless the context otherwise requires, the Board will interpret:

(a) “Herbal therapy” to mean a system of healing art that places the chief emphasis on the flow and balance of dynamic force or energy in the body mechanism as being the most important single factor in maintaining the natural health and well-being of the living organism and includes, without limitation, the prescribing and use of plants or plant extracts or a combination thereof to treat an ailment or disease of the mind, emotions or body, or for the cure or relief of any wound, bodily injury or deformity. As used in this paragraph:

(1) “Plant” includes, without limitation, any tree, vine, shrub, vegetable or herb or any part of a tree, vine, shrub, vegetable or herb.

(2) “Plant extract” means a substance removed from a plant by physical or chemical means for medicinal purposes.

(b) “Neural therapy” to mean dry needling, the use of an electronic testing and treatment device and the injection of vitamins, minerals, homeopathic medications, herbal extracts, enzymes, orthomolecular substances or other medicinal or pharmaceutical preparations into the:

- (1) Acupuncture, acupressure or trigger points;
 - (2) Ganglia; or
 - (3) Subcutaneous tissue, intracutaneous tissue, intra-articular tissue or periosteal tissue,
- ↳ of a patient to control pain or produce other beneficial clinical effects.

(c) “Neuromuscular integration” to mean the progressive harmonization of the endocrine system, immune system, autonomic nervous system, skeletal system and smooth muscle system of a patient with the cognitive and noncognitive faculties of a patient by the use of:

- (1) Manipulation of the soft tissues of the body to balance the body ~~is~~, including, without limitation:
 - (I) *Aquastretch exercising or any other form of aquatic therapy; and
 - (II) *Cranio-sacral manipulation; and
- (2) Thought field therapy to recondition the endocrine system, immune system, autonomic nervous system and central nervous system.

(d) “Nutrition” to include, without limitation, applied kinesiology or any other modality or method used for the recognition, evaluation, treatment and correction of the unique dietary needs of a patient.

(e) “Orthomolecular therapy” to mean the treatment and prevention of disease, including, without limitation, infection, malignancy and degenerative illness, by adjusting the natural chemical constituents of the body on the molecular level. The term includes, without limitation:

(1) The prescription of topical and oral supplements, medicines and pharmaceutical preparations; and

(2) The intravenous infusion, intramuscular injection, subcutaneous injection and intradermal injection of vitamins, amino acids, peptides, polypeptides, enzymes, sarcodes, medicines and pharmaceutical preparations, homeopathic medications, ozone, bio-oxidative substances or chelating agents,

↳ to detoxify and remove harmful substances from the body, including, without limitation, heavy metals, the buildup of vascular and arterial plaque and toxic environmental factors, including, without limitation, pesticides, xenobiotics, bacteria and fungi.

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Aquastretch exercising” means a method of personal or assisted exercise used as a form of aquatic or nonaquatic therapy which enables stretching of the body to encourage dynamic intuitive movement, usually in various depths of water and with various weights attached to the body, to increase systemic flexibility and improve vascular, nerve and muscular functions.

(b) “Bio-oxidative substances” means substances that are used to promote healing at the cellular level by the use of oxygen in its various forms.

~~(b)~~ (c) “Chelating agents” means substances that are used to remove heavy metals and other toxins from the body, including, without limitation:

(1) Sodium 2,3-dimercaptopropane-1-sulfonate (DMPS);

(2) Dimercaptosuccinic acid (DMSA);

(3) Ethylene diamine tetra-acetic acid (EDTA);

- (4) Penicillamine;
- (5) Diethylene triamine penta-acetic acid (DTPA);
- (6) Deferoxamine mesylate; and
- (7) Clathration agents.

~~(e)~~ (d) “Cranio-sacral manipulation” means the manipulation of muscles, ligaments, fascia or other connective tissues, and any anatomical structures relating to those tissues, to improve the function of cranial nerves and systemic neurological dynamics.

(e) “Dry needling” means a procedure that involves inserting acupuncture needles under the skin at trigger points and while those needles are inserted, rotating the needles or connecting the needles to a low current electrical supply.

~~(f)~~ (f) “Pharmaceutical preparations” includes narcotic drugs or opiates that are listed as schedule II controlled substances pursuant to chapter 453 of NRS.

~~(g)~~ (g) “Thought field therapy” means a technique that uses the energy meridians of the body which are used in acupuncture and acupressure to treat abnormal patterns of thought that cause emotional and psychophysiological distress.

~~(h)~~ (h) “Trigger point” means a hyperirritable spot within the skeletal muscle or the fascia of that muscle that, upon compression, causes pain, tenderness and autonomic nervous system phenomena.

~~(i)~~ (i) “Xenobiotics” means chemical compounds that, under normal circumstances, are foreign to living organisms.

Sec. 4. NAC 630A.023 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.023 1. If a homeopathic physician, advanced practitioner of homeopathy or homeopathic assistant performs a nutritional evaluation on a patient, the nutritional evaluation may include:

(a) An analysis of the blood, urine and body tissue for vitamins, minerals and amino acids, whether or not ~~[such]~~ the analysis is performed by a laboratory; ~~[and]~~

(b) A functional intracellular analysis ~~[]~~;

(c) A test of muscle strength and endurance using applied kinesiology; and

(d) The use of dark-field microscopy.

2. If a homeopathic physician, advanced practitioner of homeopathy or homeopathic assistant performs nutritional treatment on a patient, the treatment may include:

(a) Dietary recommendations; and

(b) Supplementation of the diet with vitamins, minerals, amino acids, protomorphogens ~~[]~~ or any combination thereof.

3. As used in this section:

(a) “Dark-field microscopy” means a method of microscopy in which an amount of light is excluded from an object under examination, thereby resulting in a dark or nearly dark field around the specimen.

(b) “Functional intracellular analysis” means the use of peripheral blood cells to analyze the metabolic and nutritional status of a patient.

~~[(b)]~~ (c) “Protomorphogens” means glandular material taken from mammals other than humans, including, without limitation, the bovine, ovine or porcine species, that supplies

Sec. 5. NAC 630A.031 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.031 1. The President of the Board shall appoint a committee composed of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board and at least two other ~~[members of the Board.]~~ persons who are homeopathic physicians or advanced practitioners of homeopathy. The committee shall:

(a) Periodically examine the educational activities, quality of training seminars, meetings and materials used for educating homeopathic physicians, homeopathic assistants or advanced practitioners of homeopathy; and

(b) Make recommendations to the Board regarding the education of homeopathic physicians, homeopathic assistants and advanced practitioners of homeopathy.

2. The Board may accept, reject or alter any recommendation of the committee.

Sec. 6. NAC 630A.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.050 1. An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine must submit to the Board a completed and notarized application on a form furnished by the Board. The form may be obtained from the office of the Board or from the Internet website of the Board. The application must include or indicate the following:

(a) A certificate, on a form furnished by the Board, proving that the applicant holds a valid and unrestricted license to practice allopathic, homeopathic or osteopathic medicine properly issued by the District of Columbia, any state or territory of the United States or a foreign country whose standards for licensing are approved by the Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates. The form for the certificate may be obtained from the office of the Board or from the Internet website of the Board.

(b) A certificate proving that the applicant completed the required period of postgraduate training.

(c) The applicant's place and date of birth, his social security number as required pursuant to NRS ~~630A.243,~~ 630A.246, his registration number issued by the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the address and telephone numbers of his home and office.

(d) A chronological history of the years and places of his allopathic, homeopathic and osteopathic medical practice and his postgraduate training.

(e) A list of allopathic, homeopathic and osteopathic medical societies and specialty boards, if any, of which he is a member.

(f) The names and addresses of all hospitals of which he is or has been a member of the staff during the past 10 years.

(g) Whether he has ever been charged with or convicted of a felony or an offense involving moral turpitude.

(h) Whether he has ever been addicted to the use of narcotics, controlled substances or alcohol.

(i) Whether he has even been charged with, convicted of or investigated for illegally using, dispensing or selling controlled substances.

(j) Whether he has ever been refused or denied a license or certificate by examination or reciprocity.

(k) Whether he has ever had his allopathic, homeopathic or osteopathic medical license or certificate suspended or revoked or has been placed on probation or has ever surrendered his license or certificate because of a disciplinary action or a pending disciplinary action.

(m) A complete set of fingerprints on a form furnished by the Board, along with the written consent of the applicant for the Board to forward the fingerprints to a law enforcement agency for a report on the criminal history of the applicant.

(n) Letters of recommendation from three physicians who are currently in practice, at least two of whom are actively engaged in the practice of homeopathic medicine in this State and each of whom is personally acquainted with the applicant.

2. The applicant must submit with the application the application fee required pursuant to NRS 630A.330. The application fee is nonrefundable.

3. If the application is rejected, it will be retained by the Board pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 630A.290 and the Board will notify the applicant of the reasons for the rejection.

Sec. 7. NAC 630A.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.060 1. The Board will administer an examination to practice homeopathic medicine at least two times each year at the dates and times established by the Board. An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine must submit the completed application required pursuant to NAC 630A.050 to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board not later than 60 days before the date scheduled for the examination to be eligible to take that examination.

2. ~~{The}~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the examination will consist of a written examination that is based upon the principles of homeopathy as defined in NRS 630A.040. The time allowed for completing the examination ~~{must}~~ will not exceed 3 hours.

3. The Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination not later than 20 days before the date scheduled for the examination.

4. Any book, computer, note or other material approved by the Secretary-Treasurer ~~{of the Board}~~ before the examination may be used during the written examination.

5. To pass the examination, an applicant must receive a score of at least 76 percent on the written examination.

6. If an applicant receives a score of 71 percent to 75 percent, inclusive, on the written examination, the Board may administer an oral examination to the applicant. An oral examination administered pursuant to this subsection will be graded on a pass or fail basis. If the applicant passes the oral examination, the Board will increase the score of the applicant on the written examination by 6 percentage points.

Sec. 8. NAC 630A.070 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.070 1. An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine who is a graduate of a medical or osteopathic school, as required pursuant to NRS 630A.230 ~~{,}~~ and 630A.240, ~~{or 630A.270,}~~ must have completed 6 months of his postgraduate medical or osteopathic training in the United States.

2. An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine who is a graduate of a foreign medical school, as required pursuant to NRS 630A.270, must have completed 6 months of his postgraduate medical training in the United States.

Sec. 9. NAC 630A.072 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.072 1. The 6 months of postgraduate training in homeopathy required of an applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine pursuant to NRS 630A.240 must consist of courses, instructors or programs which are approved by the Board. In determining whether to approve a course or program, the Board will consider:

- (a) The textbooks and other instructional aids used in the course or program;
- (b) The institution offering the course or program;
- (c) The qualifications of the instructor teaching the course or program; and
- (d) Whether the course or program includes instruction on:
 - (1) The diagnostic and therapeutic principles referred to in NRS 630A.040;
 - (2) The procedure for evaluating a patient;
 - (3) The procedure for selecting an appropriate treatment based upon the evaluation of the patient;
 - (4) Homeopathic posology and pharmacology; and
 - (5) The methodology of prescribing homeopathic medicines and therapies.

2. The Board may , without notice, revoke the approval of a course or program ~~that~~ that the Board has previously approved if ~~that~~ the Board determines that the course or program no longer complies with the considerations set forth in subsection 1.

3. The Board will maintain a list of courses and programs that are currently approved by the Board.

4. If an applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine has completed a course or program that has not been approved by the Board, he may submit the course or program to the Board for approval. The Board will review the course or program based upon the considerations set forth in subsection 1. If the Board approves the course or program, the applicant will receive credit for the postgraduate training.

Sec. 10. NAC 630A.076 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.076 A homeopathic physician who is actively practicing homeopathy in Nevada and who is in good standing with the Board may serve as a supervisor of a person who is engaged in the postgraduate training required ~~fin~~ by paragraph (c) of subsection 1 of NRS 630A.240 or who is engaged in training required pursuant to NAC 630A.420, if the licensee:

1. Receives approval in writing from the Board;
2. Notifies the Board in writing at the conclusion of the training ~~period~~ that the person:
 - (a) Has completed ~~6 months~~ the required period of training; and
 - (b) Is prepared to be examined by the Board; and
3. Attests in writing to the Board that he has not willfully and intentionally made a false or fraudulent statement or submitted a false or fraudulent document to the Board.

Sec. 11. NAC 630A.096 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.096 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, each homeopathic physician, homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy applying for renewal of his license or certificate must, at the time of annual registration, submit to the Board evidence, in such form as the Board requires, that he has completed during the preceding year 20 credits of continuing ~~homeopathic medical~~ education in courses approved by the Board, including, without limitation, courses ~~in complementary~~ relating to:

(a) Homeopathy;

(b) Complementary and alternative ~~medical education~~ therapy; or

2. A homeopathic physician who has completed a full year of residency or fellowship in allopathic, osteopathic or homeopathic medicine any time during the period for annual registration immediately preceding the submission of the application for annual registration is exempt from the requirements set forth in subsection 1 ~~for that year~~.

3. If a homeopathic physician, homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy fails to submit evidence of his completion of continuing ~~homeopathic medical~~ education within the time and in the manner set forth in subsection 1, his license or certificate will not be renewed. Such a person may not resume the practice of homeopathic medicine pursuant to this chapter and chapter 630A of NRS unless he:

(a) Pays a fee to the Board which is twice the fee for renewal of:

(1) A license as set forth in subsection 1 of NAC 630A.120;

(2) A certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant as set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of NAC 630A.550; or

(3) A certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy as set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of NAC 630A.550;

(b) Submits to the Board, in such form as it requires, evidence that he has completed the 20 credits of continuing ~~homeopathic medical~~ education required by subsection 1; and

(c) Is found by the Board to be otherwise qualified for active status pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 630A of NRS.

Sec. 12. NAC 630A.100 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.100 1. An applicant for a temporary license shall furnish to the Board, along with his application, a letter from the homeopathic physician for whom the applicant is to serve as a substitute requesting the issuance of the temporary license, stating the reasons for the absence from his practice and the period of his absence.

2. A homeopathic physician licensed in ~~an adjoining~~ another state who applies to the Board for a special license to practice homeopathic medicine in this State for a specified period of time and for specific purposes must do so by a letter, accompanied by proof that he holds a valid license issued to him by the other state.

3. The applicant for a nonrenewable temporary or a special license may be required to appear before the Board or one of its members for an oral interview before the issuance of the license.

4. A special license will state on its face the period during which it is valid and the specified purposes for the license.

Sec. 13. NAC 630A.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.120 The Board will charge and collect the following fees:

1. For the annual renewal of a license to practice homeopathic medicine.....~~[$550]~~ $600
2. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a license to practice homeopathic medicine~~[$330]~~ $400
3. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy~~[$165]~~ $215

4. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant.....~~[$83]~~ $108

5. For a temporary, special or limited license or certificate $150

Sec. 14. NAC 630A.136 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.136 1. If a judgment is entered against a homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy in any court, or a settlement is reached, on a claim involving malpractice ~~and~~ and the amount of the judgment or settlement is $50,000 or more, the homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy shall report that fact to the Board within 60 days after the judgment is entered or the settlement is reached.

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Community” embraces the entire area customarily served by homeopathic physicians and advanced practitioners of homeopathy among whom a patient may reasonably choose, not merely the particular area inhabited by the patients of that individual homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy or the particular city or place where the homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy has his office.

(b) “Malpractice” means failure on the part of a homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill ordinarily exercised by homeopathic physicians and advanced practitioners of homeopathy in good standing in the community in which he practices.

4. A special certificate will state on its face the period during which it is valid and the specified purposes for the certificate.

Sec. 23. NAC 630A.490 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.490 1. An advanced practitioner of homeopathy and his supervising homeopathic physician shall prepare and sign a written protocol, demonstrating agreement to the terms and content of the protocol. The protocol must include, without limitation:

(a) A description of the scope of practice of the advanced practitioner as authorized by the supervising homeopathic physician ~~[]~~, which may include, without limitation:

(1) A statement setting forth the modalities and services the advanced practitioner may provide; and

(2) A statement setting forth any limitations or restrictions imposed by the Board upon the practice of the advanced practitioner;

(b) A statement from the supervising homeopathic physician that he has determined that the advanced practitioner is qualified and competent to provide the services authorized in the scope of practice; and

(c) A list of ~~[any programs of training from which the advanced practitioner has graduated;~~
~~and~~

~~—(d) A list of~~ conditions under which the advanced practitioner agrees to refer a patient to the supervising homeopathic physician.

2. If an advanced practitioner of homeopathy intends to engage in the intrastate practice of homeopathic medicine using electronic means, the written protocol must incorporate all the requirements and prohibitions that apply to homeopathic physicians engaging in the intrastate practice of homeopathic medicine using electronic means.

3. The protocol must ~~[reflect]~~:

(a) Reflect established national or customary standards for the practice of homeopathic medicine ~~[]~~; and

(b) Include a summary of all applicable provisions of this chapter and chapter 630A of NRS relating to the advanced practitioner of homeopathy deemed necessary by the supervising homeopathic physician.

4. An advanced practitioner of homeopathy and his supervising homeopathic physician shall prepare a written informed consent form for patients. The informed consent form must:

(a) Disclose to a patient that the advanced practitioner of homeopathy is:

- (1) An advanced practitioner of homeopathy;
- (2) Not a licensed homeopathic physician; and
- (3) Governed by a protocol that is available for inspection.

(b) Include any other information the Board determines is necessary to provide to a patient and requires to be included in the form.

5. Before an advanced practitioner of homeopathy may provide a medical service to a patient:

- (a) The informed consent form must be reviewed and approved by the Board; and
- (b) The advanced practitioner of homeopathy must obtain the signature of the patient on the informed consent form prepared and approved by the Board pursuant to this section.

6. The supervising homeopathic physician shall submit a copy of the protocol and the informed consent form to the Board for approval. If the Board does not approve the protocol or the informed consent form, it will return the protocol or the informed consent form to the physician with an explanation for the denial. The supervising homeopathic physician shall rewrite the protocol or the informed consent form to conform with any suggestion of the Board and resubmit it to the Board for consideration at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board.

7. A copy of the protocol and the informed consent form must be maintained and be available to the Board or an authorized representative of the Board for inspection at each location where the advanced practitioner provides medical services.

Sec. 24. NAC 630A.550 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.550 1. A certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy which is issued by the Board must be renewed each year before January 1.

2. To renew a certificate, a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner must:

- (a) Submit an application for renewal to the Board;
- (b) Submit proof that he has completed the required annual continuing education; and
- (c) Pay to the Board:

(1) An annual renewal fee of ~~[$165]~~ $200 for a certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant ~~[-]~~; or

(2) An annual renewal fee of ~~[$330]~~ $400 for a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy.

3. A homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy who fails to submit proof to the Board, before January 1, that he has completed the required annual continuing education may not renew his certificate until:

(a) He submits proof that he has completed the continuing education;

(b) The Board determines that he is otherwise qualified to practice as a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy; and

(c) He pays to the Board a renewal fee which is equivalent to two times the fee set forth in subsection 2.

4. The Board may revoke the certificate of a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner who does not pay the renewal fee before January 1. A homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner whose certificate is revoked for this reason may request, within 2 years after revocation, that the Board restore his certificate.

Sec. 25. NAC 630A.560 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.560 The Board may initiate disciplinary action against a homeopathic assistant or an advanced practitioner of homeopathy or may deny the issuance or renewal of a certificate if the Board finds after providing notice and a hearing that the homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy:

1. Willfully and intentionally made a false or fraudulent statement or submitted a forged or false document to the Board;

2. Represented to another that the homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy was a licensed physician or knowingly permitted another person to represent him as such;

3. Performed medical services which were not directed or supervised by a homeopathic physician as required by NAC 630A.350 and 630A.470;
