

HOMEOPATHIC MEDICAL DOCTOR (HMD)

DO YOU QUALIFY FOR A LICENSE?

Every person desiring to practice homeopathic medicine in Nevada must, before beginning to practice, procure from the Board a license authorizing such practice.

A License may be issued to any person who:

1. Is a citizen of the United States or is lawfully entitled to remain and work in the United States;
2. Has received the degree of doctor of medicine (M.D.) or doctor of osteopathic medicine (D.O.) from the school he attended during the 2 years immediately preceding the granting of the degree;
3. Is licensed to practice allopathic or osteopathic medicine in any state or country, the District of Columbia or a territory or possession of the United States;
4. Has completed 1 year of postgraduate training in allopathic or osteopathic medicine approved by the Board;
5. Has passed all oral or written examinations required by the Board or this chapter; and
6. Meets additional requirements established by the Board.

An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine who is a graduate of a medical school located in the United States or Canada shall submit to the Board, through its Secretary-Treasurer, proof that he has received:

1. The degree of doctor of medicine from a medical school which at the time of his graduation was accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education or the Committee for the Accreditation of Canadian Medical Schools, or the degree of doctor of osteopathic medicine from an osteopathic school which at the time of his graduation was accredited by the Bureau of Professional Education of the American Osteopathic Association;
2. One year of postgraduate training in allopathic or osteopathic medicine approved by the Board; and
3. Six months of postgraduate training in homeopathy.

LICENSE BY RECIPROCITY

The Board may, in its discretion, license an applicant who holds a valid license or certificate issued to him by the homeopathic medical examining board of the District of Columbia or of any state or territory of the United States, if:

1. The legal requirements of the homeopathic medical examining board were, at the time of issuing the license or certificate, in no degree or particular less than those of this State at the time when the license or certificate was issued.
2. The applicant is of good moral character and reputation.
3. The applicant passes an oral examination, where required by the Board.
4. The applicant furnishes to the Board such other proof of qualifications, professional or moral, as the Board may require.

If you wish to apply, download and complete the license application and mail to the board office. If you have questions, call, write, or send a fax to the Executive Director. (See the Contact page on this web site.)
