STATE BOARD ADDS NEW LICENSEES

(February, 2007) The State of Nevada Board of Homeopathic Medical Examiners (BHME) approved new licensees during their annual board meeting held in Las Vegas January 27, 2007. Doris Rapp, a medical doctor from Arizona received her license as an Homeopathic Medical Doctor (HMD) and Samuel Winter, Doctor of Osteopathy (DO) received his Homeopathic Medical Doctor (HMD) license as well. Dr Rapp's license was given through reciprocity while Dr. Winter was required to take the HMD test.

Others newly certified to practice homeopathic medicine included Tatiana Dickinson, an MD from Russia, who received her certificate as an Advanced Practitioner of Homeopathy (APH), Debbie Bolda, Homeopathic Assistant (HA), and Hilary Dudley, Homeopathic Assistant (HA).

Dr. Rapp's focus will be in working with autistic children and her background is extensive in the treatment of autism. Dr. Winter will practice homeopathic medicine with Dr. Frank Shallenberger's office located in Carson City, NV.

The State Board of Homeopathic Medical Examiners was formed to regulate the practice of homeopathic medicine in Nevada and any activities that are within the scope of such practice, to protect the public health and safety and the general welfare of the people of this state.
